Destination

Language programme in Munich

Munich is without a doubt one of the loveliest cities in Germany. It's a lush, green areas and numerous parks such as Olympical park, park of the Nymphenburg castle and the famous Englischer Garten. Close to the Alps, it attracts nature tourists and sport enthusiasts, including hikers and skiers looking for an outdoor adventure. What's not to love?

Located in Bavaria, this vibrant city has a population of over one million inhabitants. Munich is particularly well-known for its traditional culture, and is world-famous for typical Bavarian traditions such as Oktoberfest, Biergärten, Pretzels and Lederhosen. The city also boasts of many museums, theatres, exhibitions and concert halls. With over 80.000 students living in Munich, the young and outgoing population gives the town a lively atmosphere and a great nightlife.

For those who are avid football fans, it's impossible to leave Munich without visiting one of the city's most prized possessions: the famous Bayern Munich team. See the Bundesliga champions live in action at the Allianz Arena for an experience you'll never forget.

The German school DID

Founded in 1977, our partner school DID is situated in the city center, 15 minutes from Karlsplatz, the liveliest place in the city and close to the Central Station. The atmosphere is very multicultural with 75 to 200 students of differing nationalities attending the school.

School facilities include:

- 11 bright classrooms
- A multimedia center with 10 computers
- A studyspace with books, CD's and multimedia materials
- A cybercafé with 5 computers (user fees)
- Wireless and cable connection
- A cafeteria with a vending machine for drinks and snacks
- A pleasant relaxing space
- A spacious roof terrace with table tennis

The school is accredited by EAQUALS (European Association for Quality Language Services) and is a TestDaf official examination centre.

Activities and events during your stay

Our partner school organizes 2 activities per week and excursions during the weekends. which you can participate or not. These activities are optional and some may require a fee. All activities are subject to change and vary depending on the time of year. You can book directly on site: entry fees and transportation are not included.

Some of the many activities may include:

- Guided visit of the city (the Pinakothek der Moderne, the Englischer Garten, etc.)
- Visit the castle of Nymphenburg
- Visit the football stadium of Bayern Munich

- Ski sessions (not during the summer)
- Guided visits to the Bavarian Alps during the summer months
- One day excursions to Augsburg, Regensburg, Salzburg, etc.
