Privacy Statement

Here at Easy Languages, we are dedicated to contributing to a secure internet where you feel safe conducting business or just surfing. For this reason, we have drafted this privacy statement to let you know exactly what information we collect from you and what we do with it.

To allow you to use our online services, we must collect a certain amount of personal information. With this we can optimise our services and respond to your needs. In handling your personal information, we adhere to Belgian and European legislation (notably the law of December 8, 1992 about privacy protection in relation to the Processing of Personal Data, as modified by the law of December 11, 1998 implementing Directive 95/46/EC of October 14, 1995 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data) controlling data protection. Since 2018 we stick to GDPR designating the General Data Protection Regulation (or AVG - Algemene Verordening Gegevensbescherming - in Dutch). This European regulation replaces the Directive 95/46/EC of October 14, 1995 on personal data protection.

Personal Information

As commercial structure with an Internet presence, we collect a certain amount of personal information that our customers voluntarily share with us in the course of doing business. We do not share any personal information that you give us with any third parties, except as required by law.

We do not retain personal information beyond the time period that is necessary for any given transaction or beyond the minimum period required by law. We do not send advertisements to you by mail or email unless you specifically request them. If you appear on one of our mailing lists and do not wish to continue receiving our adverts, simply contact us by any method listed on our contact page and we will remove immediately your contact from our lists.

Safeguards

At Easy Languages we understand the importance of securing the information that our customers choose to provide us with. For that reason, we have invested in secure information transfer technologies. All the information on our enrolment pages are transmitted over secure http, the best protection available today.

External Links

We have a limited number of links to third party sites on our pages. We provide these links in the hope that they will be helpful to our visitors, but we disavow any responsibility for their content. No external links are paid placements.
