Destination

Mexico City

Mexico City is one of the biggest cities in the world. During your stay, you'll never be short of cultural festivities and will discover a unique culture and exciting arts scene. You'll also be in the middle of a bustling city with a multitude of different activities on offer. With an excellent transport system, most of museums and cultural or historical sites are easily accessible by metro.

Our Partner School

Our partner school is located in the heart of Mexico City, in the Colonia Condesa district. This is a very safe area where students can meet up and go out. The school is located in a typical Colonial house and is easily accessible by public transport.

The school is a member of IALC, the best known group of language schools in the world.

School facilities include:

- 6 classrooms
- Cafeteria
- A terrace
- WiFi connection
- Computers available to loan

Activities and events during your stay

Our partner school is one of the best schools in terms of organising social and cultural activities in Mexico: excursions every weekend, cultural activities, cooking workshops, painting, history etc.

As a complement to Spanish lessons, these activities help you understand the Mexican way of life.

Some of the many activities may include:

- Weekend visits to Guanajuato, San Miguel, Puebla, Oaxaca, Acapulco, Michoacán, Valle de Bravo
- Parties, bars and clubs outings organised at some hot spots in the city
- Guided visits to cultural spots within the city: pyramids, museums, etc.
- Special courses held at the school as complement to Spanish courses
